Preface

Instruments

Flute | Oboe | Clarinet in Bb | Trumpet in C | Trombone | Tuba | Keyboard (Sampler) | Double Bass | Drumset

The score is not in C.

Dynamic markings are relative. (= Players should adjust so that the same dynamic marking results in a similar loudness for each instrument.)

Accidentals apply for the rest of the respective bar and for the same octave only.

Grace notes are to be played before the beat.

Glissandi are to be played as continuously as possible, except when indicated otherwise. (= Only play a chromatic glissando when indicated.)

Microtone accidentals indicate quarter tones (but don't have to be very exact).

The piece should be conducted. (Usually.)

Flute

pizz.

Play lip or tongue pizzicato, as percussive as possible.

Oboe

Multiphonics are indicated by an M above a note and a corresponding fingering.

The resulting sound should prominently feature the written pitch, while being as spectrally rich as possible.

Clarinet (in Bb)

soft

growl

Growl into instrument to make the tone as distorted as possible while still remaining very soft.

slap (perc. only)

Play a toneless, short, percussive slap tongue.

Trumpet (in C) / Trombone / Tuba

air only

Produce an air sound with no identifiable pitch.

Keyboard

A full-range (88 keys) keyboard is required. A sampler file in sfz format is provided / can be requested. Each sample is filtered for low velocities and distorted for high velocities. When playing f, the sound should play back in a more or less unfiltered and undistorted form. Clearly audible distortion should occur when playing ff or fff. mp and below should produce a more silent, filtered version of the sound.

A high degree of rhythmical precision is required, as some samples have an inner rhythmicality that usually corresponds to the current tempo prescribed in the score. Notes with no articulation marks are to be held for the full note duration and played with mechanical precision.

Double Bass

Pizzicati should be played resting the thumb on the lowest string. No bow in hand. (= “jazz pizzicato”) sul pont. / poco sul pont. / sul tasto: Move the bow close to bridge or fingerboard, but produce a clear pitch.
 molto sul pont.: Play as close to the bridge as possible and produce a noisy sound that does not necessarily have a clear pitch.

Drumset

The drumset consists of:

- Bass Drum
- Snare Drum (12" suggested)
- HiHat (8" / as small as available)
- Ride Cymbal
- Splash Cymbal (8" / as small as available)
- China-Splash-Stack (8" suggested)
- 8" Tom & 10" Tom
- 2x 6" Rototom (tuned high and low, but both higher than 8" Tom)

Rim: Mute drumhead with stick or not, depending on what is comfortable.

Brush on Snare: Use an actual brush. Scrape snare slowly, producing an irregular crackling sound.

“cont. sim.”: continue similarly

Technical Requirements

The required equipment includes:

- (close) microphones for flute, oboe, clarinet, trumpet, trombone, tuba, double bass
- microphones for drum set (e. g. bass drum, snare, hihat, toms, 2 overheads)
- midi-keyboard (88 keys), including stand and piano stool
- laptop with player for sfz-samplerfiles
- PA (stereo) and mixing board
- music stands for nine musicians
- monitoring for nine musicians (as needed, especially keyboard and drumset)
- corresponding audio and midi-cables

Keyboard sends midi to computer/sfz-player. Computer/sfz-player sends audio (stereo) to mixing board/PA.
 All other instruments are amplified.

Library Music No. 1: Penguins, etc. is based on music by Dennis Farnon, A. V. and others.

This page contains six staves of musical notation for various instruments. The top three staves (Flute, Oboe, Clarinet) are in treble clef, 3/4 time, and mostly in B-flat major. The Trombone (Tp.) and Bassoon (Tbn.) staves are in bass clef, 3/4 time, and mostly in B-flat major. The Double Bass (Tba.) staff is in bass clef, 3/4 time, and mostly in B-flat major. The Keyboards (Key.) staff shows two voices: one in treble clef and one in bass clef, both in 3/4 time and mostly in B-flat major. The Double Bassoon (Db.) staff is in bass clef, 3/4 time, and mostly in B-flat major. The Drum (Dr.) staff uses a rhythmic shorthand with 'x' and 'o' symbols, with a '3' over some groups of notes. Dynamic markings include f, ff, mp, ff, mf, and ff. Performance instructions like '3' and '5' are placed over groups of notes in the Trombone, Bassoon, and Keyboards staves.
